Re: Whomever it concerns

Dear Sir/Madam

I'm writing to you for help with an issue. I'm a naturalized citizen of the United States of America and was disabled in 2013. I remained unconscious in a nursing home for over three years. I am unable to speak due to a medical procedure on my throat and email remains my only means of communication to the world. I am currently undergoing rehabilitation and is quadriplegic. During this time my medical records were falsified to enable fraudulent billing of Medicaid. A doctor at the Ohio State Wexner Medical Center sent a fax to the Ohio State University falsely claiming that I had died and therefore was terminated from employment. I am unable to obtain justice because of the statute of limitations . Which brings me to my issue which is a complaint and cry for help. Please help me explain to the department of Justice that the law as currently written enables any criminal who disable their victims past the statute of limitations to escape from justice. In my case induced coma was used to hide a medical accident in an attempted murder and Medicaid fraud. I'm awaiting the FBI to investigate the prolonged fraud of the USA government and violation of the affordable care act. I believe that with your assistance, I can:

1. Demonstrate that USA technology such as wheelchair accessible vans, speech synthesizers and robotic arm can be used to overcome disabilities. I believe that being the first person in the world to ever recover naturally from a brain infection with no known cure, I am operating at the frontiers of human understanding.
2. Demonstrate that in spite of my disabilities I can enjoy the liberty and pursuit of happiness.
3. Demonstrate that disabled migrants with suitable help, can contribute to the economy of the USA.
4. Demonstrate the value of a USA education to the world. I am trying to start a consulting firm in meteorology and could use help from the Small Business Administration.
5. My situation can be used to highlight different aspects of migration to the USA,
6. My case can be used to highlight racial injustices in the USA .

Yours faithfully

Francis Otieno
